AN ACT

For the relief of Thomas C. Johnson.

October 17, 1974
[H. R. 6202]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Thomas C. Johnson, of Hingham, Massachusetts, is relieved of liability to the United States in the amount of $2,382.94, representing overpayments of active duty pay received by him as a member of the United States Army for the period from July 5, 1967, to July 4, 1969, inclusive, as a result of an administrative error which, through no fault of his own, occurred in crediting him with service in the advanced Reserve Officers Training Corps program. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, full credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this section.

Thomas C. Johnson.

SEC. 2. (a) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said Thomas C. Johnson, an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts paid by him, or withheld from sums otherwise due him, with respect to the indebtedness to the United States specified in the first section of this Act.

(b) No part of the amount appropriated in subsection (a) of this section shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this subsection shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved October 17, 1974.
